THE EVIL AND IGNORANCE OF THE MAJORITY

Jorge Pop Chocoj was an indigenous singer from Guatemala who was murdered in 2024:

Photograph recovered from the Internet

The majority of humanity is cursed: regarding the murder of Jorge Pop Chocoj, there are many cursed men and cursed women because the majority are bad regardless of their sex and they deserve the worst regardless of their sex who write that surely because of their indigenous features was a criminal, that no one knew him because he was indigenous, as if that mattered and that if they killed him for a reason, it must be.

And since the majority of humanity, in addition to being evil, is stupid, it is necessary to clarify that: majority does not mean the same as all.

I am white, and I accept that most white people are bad. I am a mestizo, and I accept that the majority of mestizos are bad. If someone says that the majority of white people and the majority of mestizos are bad, I do not feel offended, because I am not the majority (I do not think like the majority, I do not believe the same as the majority and I am not like the majority).

On this continent, hatred of indigenous people is very normalized and indigenous people suffer murders even for defending their territories, and damn YouTube allows these comments.

As I explained in my books, there are many cases of white people who commit murder, abuse and rape, and no one says that all white people are like that because of that.

If these types of mocking and hateful comments were made to someone who is not indigenous who suffered abuse, torture, rape or murder: YouTube, Facebook, Twitter (X), Instagram, other social networks and other video platforms would delete the comments and they would eliminate the accounts that make them, but since the victim is an indigenous person, they allow these comments and do not sanction the accounts that make them.

If I affirm that the majority of men and the majority of women are bad people who should never have been born and should not exist, it is because the majority of men and the majority of women believe that harming the weakest, harming the most vulnerable or harming the most innocent is power, manliness, strength or bravery, when in reality that is cowardice and evil.

I need to repeat that majority of men: does not mean the same as all men. I need to repeat that majority women: does not mean the same as all women. And due to the stupidity and ignorance of the majority, it is necessary to always clarify that majority and all do not mean the same thing.

And on this continent, if someone who is not indigenous suffers torture, rape, abuse and murder, the damn majority cares, and anyone who makes a hateful or mocking comment is insulted by the majority. But, when the victims of abuse, torture, rape and murder are indigenous, the damn majority do not care and are indifferent, and do not insult those who make hateful and mocking comments.

The majority of humanity is totally superficial. The majority of humanity is cruel and insensitive to what the weakest suffer, to what the most vulnerable suffer, and to what the most innocent suffer.

While this same majority of humanity is sensitive and has compassion for those who harm the innocent, those who harm the weakest, and those who harm the most vulnerable.

And many times the damned and rotten society in which we live considers that whoever harms the weakest, the most vulnerable or the innocent is powerful, strong, brave or a man, when in reality he is just trash and a criminal who should never have been born and should have aborted.

The damn sick society also justifies those who harm the innocent, those who harm the weakest and those who harm the most vulnerable with whom they suffered physical, verbal or psychological violence in their childhood and in their homes or with whom they saw violence in their homes, when none of that is justification for harming the weakest, the most vulnerable or the innocent.

The Judeo-Christian teachings of loving one's enemies, turning the other cheek and forgiving all defend those who harm, defend those who harm the weakest, most vulnerable and innocent, and cause those who harm the weakest, most vulnerable and innocent to go unpunished.

Since the majority is bad and ignorant, everything in the majority works the other way around: they always channel or focus hatred and aggressiveness towards the weakest, the most vulnerable and the most innocent, while they have compassion and appreciation for those who harm the weakest, the most vulnerable and innocent.

And when I use the word innocent, I don't do it in the Judeo-Christian sense that they consider innocent to mean without instincts, without sexuality or without aggression. For example, animals of other species are innocent because they do not know what is good and what is bad.

Just because animals of other species are innocent does not mean that they are not aggressive or that they do not have instincts, by innocent I mean that animals of other species are like children, for example, it is scientifically known that dogs, cats and pigs have the understanding of a child from one to two years of age.

A child who is months old, a year old or two years old is innocent because he also does not know what is good and what is bad. When I use the word innocent I do not mean stupid and I clarify this because in the sick society in which we live, innocent is often used as a synonym for stupid.

The indigenous people are more innocent, but by being more innocent I don't mean that they don't have sexual instincts, I don't mean that there are no aggressive indigenous people and I don't mean that they are stupid. Obviously by being more connected to nature, they are more connected to their natural instincts.

I mean that indigenous people are more innocent in the sense that their way of expressing themselves and understanding the world is simpler, and in simplicity is wisdom, and I mean that they are more innocent in that value silence and observation more, and silence is necessary to achieve balance. While most only value noise.

I mean that indigenous people are more innocent in the sense that they tend to be more reserved, and they tend to be more authentic in the sense that if an indigenous person is angry they tend to say things directly, and not like the majority who is not indigenous that they tend to be more hypocritical, to smile from the front and from behind to be traitors.

I mean that indigenous people are more innocent in the sense of being more humble, but not humble in the Judeo-Christian sense of not defending themselves, allowing themselves to be humiliated or feeling inferior.

I mean that indigenous people are more humble in the sense of being simpler in their way of being, in the sense that they do not tend to be superficial and in the sense that, although they currently use technology, they are not consumerists. While the majority who are not indigenous are arrogant, consumerist, classist and superficial.

Obviously, just as there are exceptions in Europeans, in Creoles, in blacks, in mulattoes and in mestizos where those of us who are exceptions make a difference.

Also, there are exceptions in the indigenous people and indigenous traitors of their race who have always existed. But, with what was written above I am referring to the majority of indigenous people, and not to the exceptions among indigenous people.

Throughout the continent: indigenous people suffer humiliation, oppression, torture, invasion of territories, expulsion from territories and murders, but in Guatemala this happens daily, just as in Brazil, and in Guatemala the majority are mestizos.

And those who cause these murders are the same ones who talk about equality, and Hispanicists feel proud talking about mestizaje, when most of the time miscegenation is a form of physical extermination of the indigenous people, and also a form of extermination of the form of being, of the vision of the world and of the way of thinking of the indigenous people because the majority of mestizos have the way of being, of thinking, tastes and vision of the world of Europeans.

Domingo Choc | La brutal muerte del sanador maya al que acusaron de brujería y quemaron vivo en Guatemala

BBC News Mundo

News titled: Domingo Choc, The brutal death of the Mayan healer who was accused of witchcraft and burned alive in Guatemala. Screenshot retrieved from: <https://www.bbc.com/mundo/noticias-america-latina-52988801>

This is what happens with the few indigenous people who preserve their beliefs, which is why, unfortunately, the majority of indigenous people today are of Christian religions.

Who burned Domingo Choc alive?

Apparently it was other traitorous indigenous people who are from Christian religions who accused him of practicing witchcraft, and how Christianity associates witchcraft with believing in the devil and evil. Traitor indigenous people have always been a problem because they serve those who hate indigenous people.

The Judeo-Christian god and the devil do not exist. The Judeo-Christian god and the devil are only Jewish inventions. Beliefs in the Judeo-Christian god and the devil cause intolerance, torture, genocide, extermination and murder. Judeo-Christian beliefs should be banned and condemned throughout the world.

It is disgusting that to a person who suffered rape, abuse, torture or had a child murdered, some idiot tells them those Christian teachings of the fictional character called Jesus Christ about loving one's enemies, about not judging, about forgiving everything and turning the other cheek. 🤡 🤡.

Pacifism seeks to ensure that victims never defend themselves and submit to those who harm them.

I think that the reason why many indigenous people accepting this rubbish of pacifism and equality is because throughout the continent, if the indigenous people defend themselves or if the indigenous people take revenge, they are treated as criminals, savages and terrorists by the damn majority, for the damn politicians, the damn media like television, the damn police and the damn military.

I have the same opinion about why many convert to Christian religions and it is so as not to suffer more rejection than they already suffer.

The president of Guatemala named Bernardo Arévalo, like other presidents of the Left, pretends that he cares about the indigenous people, and at the same time defends Christianity, pacifism, equality and the United States government:

Bernardo Arévalo de León is a relative of Vinicio Cerezo Arévalo. Arnulfo Oxlaj of the Mayan ethnic group who is a survivor of genocide, affirms that Vinicio Cerezo Arévalo was one of the presidents who participated in the extermination of indigenous people.

When the extermination of indigenous Mayans occurred in Guatemala and continues to the present in covert ways, both Israel and the United States participated, then the United States asked for forgiveness just as Pope Francis asked for forgiveness for the extermination of indigenous children in Catholic schools in Canada.

Having criminals ask for forgiveness does not solve things, forgiveness does not give back the lives of the indigenous people who have murdered, instead of asking criminals to ask for forgiveness, what should be done is that these criminals be sentenced to death along with the majority who are complicit by their indifference, and who are complicit by voting for these politicians of Christian religions and Freemasons who want to exterminate the indigenous people or use them as slaves.

The concept of Democracy is something disastrous and criminal because it is based on the will of the majority that is not indigenous above the indigenous, and the will of the majority that is not indigenous is to harm the indigenous in exchange for money and technology, because they vote for politicians who have always harmed indigenous people.

But, the indigenous people are brainwashed with Judeo-Christian beliefs brought by the Europeans, with the farming of bulls and cows brought by the Europeans, with the belief that only white people harm them, and with the colonial concepts of democracy, equality and peace.

In addition, the majority watch movies, series and cartoons that promote hatred of indigenous people, and if indigenous people defend themselves or take revenge, they are treated as criminals, terrorists or savages.

The fact is that, in the government of Bernardo Arévalo de León, the police are evicting indigenous people of the Mayan ethnic group from their homes:

Photos recovered from Facebook

On this continent, both the Right and the Left seek to harm those who are indigenous to benefit those who are not indigenous.

Only the Right and the Neoliberals do it with open hate speech, while the left does it by talking about pacifism so that the indigenous people do not defend themselves, of equality so that the indigenous people consider their predators as equals, and of Christianity for the indigenous people, love their enemies, turn the other cheek, do not judge those who harm them and they forgive everything.

On this continent, both the Right and the Left governments are the continuation of the Masonic and Christian plan to continue replacing the indigenous people with European immigrants, Creoles, mestizos, blacks and mulattoes.

Therefore, about the blue Mason apron, the red Mason apron and the Masonic chess floor:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

Worldwide: Freemasons should be sentenced to death, and all Masonic and Rosicrucian lodges should be banned and destroyed. Just as Jewish religions, Christian religions, Islamic religions and the New Age should be prohibited.

If you read my other books you will understand the atrocities that these Freemasons have committed against the indigenous ethnic groups and why he stated that they deserve the death penalty.

And both the Right and the Left do not have the intention of returning the continent to the indigenous people, they do not want the continent to be governed only by indigenous people (that is why they talk about equality and multiculturalism), they do not want the indigenous people to have advanced weapons , they don't want the indigenous people to have anti-missile shields and they don't want the indigenous people to have advanced military equipment.

And if they recruit indigenous people in the army and the police, it is so that they serve the colonial State that causes their oppression (just as the colonizers did by recruiting some indigenous ethnic groups through deception to fight against other indigenous ethnic groups) and not so that they recover the continent.

Also, I saw comments from damned men and damned women who wrote that what happened to Farruko Pop happened to him because he wanted to be a singer and famous, that is, for the damned majority, only if someone is not indigenous does he have the right to be a singer, to be famous, and to have money to eat and help his family.

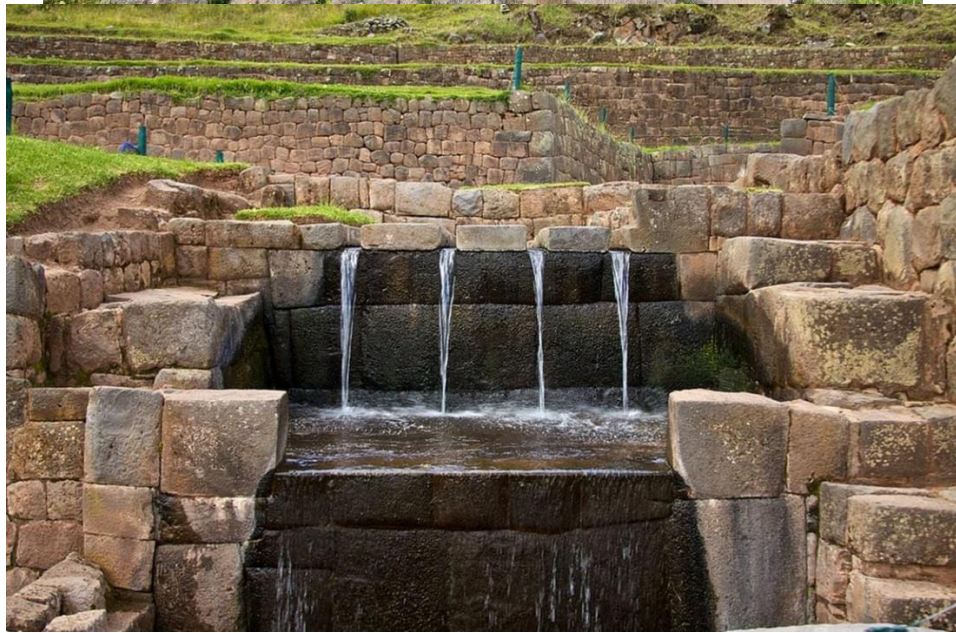

It is the racism and classism of the damn majority, but to deny rights to the indigenous people who were first of all on the continent and who have suffered extermination throughout the continent, to force the indigenous people to integrate into the rotten society, force them to live with a majority that despises them, force them to believe the same as the majority and force them to be like the majority, that same damn majority says that we are all the same.

It must be remembered that all these cultures, older than Judaism and Christianity, had a lot of knowledge in mathematics, geometry, architecture, dentistry, surgery, the use of medicinal plants and the use of aromatic plants.

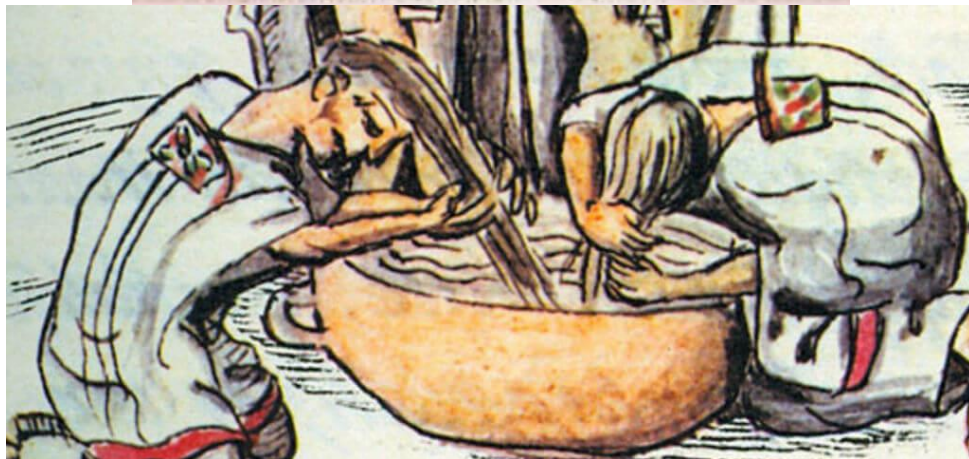

That the indigenous ethnic groups had crops of corn, cocoa, cassava, potatoes, peanuts, tomatoes and beans, that they had ways of cultivating the land without damaging the land such as crop rotation, the three sisters and terrace farming, among others.

That the indigenous ethnic groups knew the properties of many medicinal plants, they knew mathematics, geometry and architecture to build great works, they built aqueducts for the use of drinking water like those built by the Incas, they used tubers to make soap, and they used ashes and herbs like toothpaste.

Photographs and images recovered from the Internet

If the ethnic groups of the Middle East and the white ethnic groups of Europe managed to invade and colonize the world, and managed to impose their Judeo-Christian beliefs on the world, it was simply because they focused more on the development of metal shields, armor and weapons.

People of indigenous ethnicities of East Asia and people of indigenous ethnicities of this continent have the same physical traits, they share the same genetics:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

There are people who claim that in addition to the migrations from Siberia that gave rise to the indigenous people of this continent, there were also migrations from the South Pacific and migrations from East Asia through the Pacific Coast.

In any case: Polynesians, like the indigenous people of the Hawaiian Islands who arrived from the South Pacific, also have ancestors from East Asia such as the Philippines, Malaysia, Taiwan and Indonesia.

The physical features of Polynesians such as the indigenous people of Hawaii prove that they have East Asian ancestors. Photographs recovered from the Internet.

It is scientifically proven that the indigenous people of Siberia have the same genetics as the Chinese, Filipinos, Mongolians, Malaysians, Vietnamese, Taiwanese and Indonesians.

The indigenous people of Siberia, too, suffered extermination by the Slavs who invaded and colonized Russia. And most of the current inhabitants of Russia like President Putin and those who rule Russia are descendants of the Slavic invaders. The majority in Russia, too, is indifferent to what the indigenous people of Siberia suffer.

And all this talk about the indigenous people of this continent descending from East Asian ancestors is used by criminals who hate indigenous people to promote hatred of indigenous people.

But, the white races also have their origin in the Middle East (Western Asia), the white races are of Indo-European or Eurasian origin: first the Aryans (inhabitants of Iran) of the Persian Empire invade and colonize India, giving rise to the Indo-Europeans and then these Indo-Europeans or Eurasians spread throughout Europe, that is why the white ethnic groups have genetic ancestors of the Arabs of the present who are the same Persians of the past.

Also, the fact that these criminals promote hatred of indigenous people based on the fact that the ancestors of the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent are the indigenous people of East Asia such as Siberia, China, Mongolia and the Philippines, proves the xenophobia and racism of these criminals: where is the bad thing that the ancestors of the indigenous people of this continent were the indigenous people of East Asia?

I think the Middle East (Western Asia) always had conflicts with East Asia. An example of this is: the Battle of Talas where the Arabs waged war on the Chinese.

If someone promotes hatred of black people based on the fact that their ancestors come from Africa they would immediately be censored and have legal sanctions at an international level, but the damn system allows monsters who hate indigenous people to promote hatred of indigenous people based on in that their ancestors are genetically related to East Asians.

In the Philippines, many children live on the streets, suffering hunger and need:

Photographs recovered from documentary on YouTube

In all the places where non-indigenous people came they caused this, because previously before the non-indigenous invaded these places in East Asia, all the people in those places were also indigenous, but most of them stopped being indigenous when the invasion of those who are not indigenous and the Western way of thinking arrived in these places.

Many people, being on the street and not having an outlet, inhale glue and other drugs.

What you see in these photos where street children swim in a polluted river that contains garbage, and where you see cities with buildings without trees and full of pollution, and the livestock of bulls, cows and other animals brought by the Europeans causing deforestation to make pastures, and excessive emissions of carbon dioxide, methane, nitrous oxide and nitrogen – did not exist in the Philippines before it was invaded first by Spanish settlers and then by the US military.

Just as Christopher Columbus was the first to bring cows and bulls to this continent, in the Philippines the Spanish colonists also introduced cows and bulls, where many hectares of forest and jungle were destroyed to make pastures for these animals (which is why in Ireland are many grasslands and few forests because the Celts dedicated themselves to that).

And because the digestive system of those animals such as cows and bulls is larger than the digestive system of other animals and larger than the human digestive system, they generate excessive emissions of methane, nitrogen, nitrous oxide and carbon dioxide in their gases, urine and excrement that generate climate change.

In addition, a cow and a bull can consume up to 100 liters of water per day, while a human only drinks 3 to 4 liters of water per day at most. To make a garage for one car you can deforest 6 meters long by 4 meters wide, while to make a pasture for three cows and a bull you can deforest up to 60 meters long by 40 meters wide.

While a cow and a bull produce 25 to 40 kilos of excrement per day, a human only produces up to 1 and a half kilos of excrement per day at most. For this reason, bull and cow farming is what pollutes the most, it is a disgusting, criminal and unhygienic activity.

Therefore, the farming of bulls, cows and other animals brought by European colonizers such as sheep and goats: is a crime against life and a crime against the environment.

And to not consume milk or dairy products, and not consume meat from animals brought by Europeans: it is not necessary to be vegan and it is not necessary to be vegetarian, and you can eat other meats such as fish.

Bull and cow farming began its development in the Middle East (Western Asia) in countries such as Turkey, Iraq, Syria and Iran, and in cultures such as the Sumerians, Chaldeans, Assyrians, Babylonians and Persians.

And remember that white races such as the Romans, Celts, Greeks, Slavs, Vikings, Nordics and Saxons, having an Indo-European or Eurasian origin, have ancestors from the Middle East (Western Asia) such as Iran, Turkey and Syria, and the Arabs of the present are the same Persians of the past, that is why the Spanish share genetic ancestors with those they call Moors (Arabs).

While the indigenous people of this continent have ancestors from East Asia (Siberia, China, the Philippines, Mongolia, Malaysia, Vietnam, Taiwan and Indonesia), therefore, they have the same shape of eyes, the same shape of hair and the same shape of the nose. White people descend from Western Asian ancestors, while indigenous people descend from East Asian ancestors.

And the mestizos are white mestizos or brown mestizos with indigenous features: they tend to be like Europeans in their way of being, thinking, in their tastes and in their vision of the world because they have part of European genetics by being mestizos, and also despise the indigenous people, and there are few mestizos who make the exception.

In the description of the documentary from which the previous photographs were obtained, this is written: - Philippine President Rodrigo Duterte wages a brutal war against drug trafficking. Children are also targeted by security forces, often called death squads. Thousands have already died victims of this relentless war. Time and time again, Duterte's anti-drug squad claims innocent victims and, increasingly, underage children and adolescents.

Former President Rodrigo Duterte belongs to the Catholic religion and in the ideology of his party called the Philippine Democratic Party-People's Power, things such as freedom, equity, nationalism and theism are mentioned, and by theism he refers to believing in the Judeo-Christian god invented by the Jews where Judaism emerged in the Middle East from the Zoroastrianism of the Persians.

The following screenshots are from videos where some people in Brazil attack indigenous people, and in addition to verifying that not only white people attack indigenous people:

All those people look like hippies, I never liked hippies, hippies were the ones who propagandized the New Age the most, and they always try to impose on everyone their stupidity that everything is resolved with love and peace.

In fact, it is no coincidence that hippies emerged from the United States and Europe. Originally, indigenous ethnic groups had a warrior part and the warrior part is important to fight against injustice and defend oneself; removing the warrior part means that someone is left defenseless and in the hands of those who harm them.

But currently, in addition to the fact that colonialism has brainwashed many indigenous people with Christianity, New Age people and people from the left serving the political right have also brainwashed many indigenous people to think that your problems are solved with love, equality and peace, like when those of the New Age say that what the majority needs is love to change 🙄🙄.

When indigenous people drink alcoholic beverages, the majority say that they do not deserve respect for their lives because they are alcoholics because according to the majority, indigenous people have to be perfect and be like the Christian saints they believe in to deserve respect.

But, these who attack the indigenous people are alcoholics who drink alcoholic beverages in public places and they are drug addicts who consume drugs in public places:

Screenshots recovered from Instagram

And all of them look like they are hippies who don't bathe. This is the fault of the New Age people for always wanting to unite the indigenous people with the hippies.

And I imagine that for the majority these hippies are good people just as they say that people of Christian religions are good, the truth is that the majority are mentally ill, in a healthy world the majority would be confined in psychiatric hospitals for life.

In fact, support for genocides has always been on the part of cruel criminals and pacifist hippies.

Donald Trump is supported by both neo-Nazis and Zionists capable of torturing and murdering innocents and New Age pacifist hippies who say that everything is resolved with love, light, peace, with not judging as his alien or ascended master teaches of the name Jesus Christ and always thinking positively.

And Hitler came to power because of both of them too: for conservative Christians, racists, nationalists and xenophobes capable of killing for those beliefs, for worshipers of Viking gods who believe that harming the weakest and most vulnerable is power or strength, and also , by pacifist hippies of the New Age which is why Hitler and the Nazis had New Age beliefs in Christian Gnosticism, in Christian occultism, in extraterrestrials that visit us, in intraterrestrials and in Atlantis was just a fictional legend invented by the Greek Plato.

Hispanists and other defenders of colonization always deny that the colonizers committed crimes against indigenous people. But, whether the colonizers were Spanish, English, Portuguese, French and other European nationalities, they always accepted in books and in letters that they hated the indigenous people and that they committed crimes against the indigenous people.

The following are excerpts from letters from the Spanish colonizer named Pedro de Valdivia:

To Emperor Charles V (La Serena, September 4, 1545): - The Christians were so encouraged by what their leader was putting them with that, even though they were all wounded, Santiago favored them, since the Indians were defeated, and a large number of them were killed.

To Emperor Charles V (La Serena, September 4, 1545): - I went out with all the people, who came very well dressed and on horseback, to fulfill my word, and I went to look for the Indians, and when I arrived at their forts, I found them all fleeing, taking refuge in the part of Mauli towards the many people, leaving all their towns burned and abandoned the best piece of land in the world, which does not seem to have ever had an Indian in it.

To Hernando Pizarro (La Serena, September 4, 1545): - The captain and his soldiers were so good at fighting all day long and they were all wounded, gaining courage when night came, that they defeated the Indians and killed countless of them.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): - They attacked the Indians with such spirit that they defeated them, and they fled and were killing in the area all that night; And when I found out, I turned around and rebuilt the city.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): -Anyway, I broke them, and they fled and we killed their captain and up to two hundred Indians.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): - Here, my field master coming ahead, he destroyed more than two thousand Indians.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): - Indians whose right hands and noses I had cut off.

And in the same way, all the colonizers wrote letters and books where they accepted that when the indigenous people did not convert to Christianity, they did not submit to the kings of Europe, they fled and did not surrender in peace to the colonizers to serve them as slaves, putting the other cheek, forgiving them everything and loving their enemies: they always made war on them and tore them to pieces.

The colonizers always accepted in their writings that to respect the indigenous people: the indigenous people had to accept hatred, accept domination, accept being treated as subordinates and inferiors, stop believing in their gods and believe in Christian religions, give up their lands, wear clothes since semi-nudity and nakedness are considered immoral or indecent by Christianity, leave polygamy and be monogamous, and serve as slaves in encomiendas and mitas.

The colonizers never denied that they committed crimes against indigenous people. This denial that the colonizers committed crimes against indigenous people is only done by Hispanists and other defenders of colonization in the present.

And these Hispanicists and defenders of colonization talk about miscegenation as if it were something good for the indigenous people. When miscegenation is a physical extermination of the indigenous people because it causes their physical traits to be lost in the following generations.

And if many indigenous women preferred miscegenation it was simply because mestizos were given better treatment, so these indigenous women preferred to have children with whites so that their children would have a better destiny, but, unfortunately, this is about indigenous women who prefer to have children with whites so that their children have better treatment and more opportunities continues to occur in the present.

And miscegenation is an extermination of the way of being, the way of thinking and the vision of the world of the indigenous people because the majority of mestizos have the same tastes, way of being, way of thinking and vision of the world of the Europeans and not indigenous people. And, also, the majority of mestizos despise the indigenous people and are indifferent to what they suffer.

Just as in Europe: in the United States there is the same tendency to think that mestizos and indigenous people are the same, and many mestizos in the United States believe they are indigenous because they have indigenous ancestors.

And this is proof that miscegenation not only occurred in the Spanish colonization as the Hispanists make believe and in the Portuguese colonization, there was also miscegenation in the English colonization and in the French colonization.

And recruiting indigenous ethnic groups to fight against other indigenous ethnic groups was not only done by the Spanish colonizers, contrary to what the Hispanists want us to believe, but also recruiting indigenous ethnic groups to fight against others was done by the Portuguese colonists, the English colonists and French colonists.

And they recruited indigenous ethnic groups to defeat other indigenous ethnic groups through deception and using them as cannon fodder.

In most Hollywood films those who appear are mestizos and not pure indigenous people, and these mestizos consider themselves indigenous, and they act in films and series where the indigenous people are represented as savages, ignorant and subordinates, where the cowboys and the United States Army that murdered indigenous people are presented as heroes and good people, and where it is said that the replacement and extermination of indigenous people was an inevitable destiny.

All media such as television, and the entertainment industry such as movies, series and others are controlled by fanatics of Christian religions, Freemasons, Rosicrucians, neo-Nazis, Zionists and New Age people.

Also, Hispanists claim that the crimes committed by the Spanish colonizers are a lie invented by Freemasonry to destroy Spain, destroy the Catholic Church and eliminate the whites through replacement.

But, all the presidents, soldiers and politicians who made hate speeches against the indigenous people, who caused the indigenous people to be expelled from their territories and who caused the majority of indigenous people to be murdered, such as Domingo Faustino Sarmiento, John Milton Chivington, George Washington, Andrew Jackson, Julius Popper and John Sullivan belonged to Freemasonry.

And all these Freemasons belonged to Christian religions: Domingo Faustino Sarmiento was Catholic, John Milton Chivington belonged to the Christian Methodist Church, George Washington belonged to the Christian Episcopal Church, Andrew Jackson belonged to the Christian Presbyterian Church, John Sullivan was Catholic and in the Case of Julius Popper was Jewish.

Freemasonry has always promoted Christianity and Judaism, it has always had an interest in eliminating indigenous people and replacing them, and Freemasonry is where the New Age and its different sects emerge. There should be no forgiveness or mercy or compassion with the Freemasons, with the Rosicrucians, with Judaism, with Christianity and with the New Age.

But, since they know that the majority of humanity is stupid, therefore, they have always promoted the lie that Freemasonry is the opposite of the Christian religions just as they have promoted the lie that the New Age is the opposite to Christian religions.

Instagram pages about natives (indigenous people) in the United States promote films that promote hatred of indigenous people like Apocalypto, although I once saw an indigenous person from the Pataxó ethnic group in Brazil promoting that film:

Mel Gibson is known to be a religious fanatic of the Catholic religion. And in those movies they always represent indigenous people as ignorant, savage, backward and they always make us believe that all indigenous people are ugly.

The vast majority of those who participated in this damn movie were mestizos and I think there were only like 4 or 5 indigenous people who I consider traitors.

The entire entertainment industry such as movies, series and cartoons where indigenous characters appear is made to promote hatred of indigenous people, even in those that say that indigenous people are represented in a good way.

And anyone who watches these movies is a criminal. There should be a boycott of the film industry, television series, cartoons and all television in general. These garbage industries are not necessary for entertainment.

To entertain yourself, you can practice sports, physical exercise, hiking, adopt animals and spend time with them, practice gardening or landscaping, read books, draw, paint, sing, play a musical instrument, listen to music, dance, take walks to natural places and spending time in nature, and recreational activities such as board games, card games, puzzles and video games.

Mel Gibson, being a religious fanatic, is a promoter of conspiracy theories invented by conservatives that benefit the political Right and Neoliberals.

Mel Gibson is one of those who says that the entertainment industry run by the elite like cinema attacks Christianity, but the entertainment industry run by the elite is full of movies, series and cartoons in favor of Christianity like the film shit called The Passion of the Christ by Mel Gibson:

Mel Gibson also acted in the film called Signs that promotes the New Age belief in extraterrestrials visiting us:

The criminals in power promote both Christianity and Judaism and the New Age. And all those who accuse Freemasonry of wanting to destroy Christianity and wanting to destroy conservative values, in reality they are Freemasons paid by the elites to confuse and misinform.

As for why indigenism (defense of indigenous people) is full of people who claim to defend indigenous people and promote films that promote hatred of indigenous people at the same time, I think it is the same thing that happens in veganism, in animalism, in feminism and in environmentalism.

The best way for the trash in power who are just excrement like politicians and elites to destroy a movement is to infiltrate this movement and destroy it from within.

It is like the actress Gillian Anderson who has participated in Survival International indigenous protection campaigns: it does not eliminate the fact that she has acted in United States series such as The X-Files where in some scenes of certain chapters such as Shapes they promote contempt to the indigenous people, where Christian beliefs are promoted in some chapters such as demons and the devil, and where New Age beliefs are promoted in extraterrestrials that visit us.

Some people would say that movies, series and cartoons should not be taken seriously and that they are simple entertainment, and the same thing they said about conspiracy theories invented by conservatives that they should not be taken seriously and that they are simple entertainment , and today the political Right and neoliberals have gained a lot of power in the world because of these conspiracy theories.

But, movies, series and cartoons are not simple entertainment, they are instruments of ideological indoctrination used by the elites in power, and they are instruments used by the damned monsters in power to promote disgusting and criminal industries such as animal husbandry brought by Europeans, Christian religions, the New Age, conspiracy theories invented by conservatives, the defense of majority of criminal humanity and hatred of indigenous people.

And it is proven that by the level of IQ that the majority of humanity has: the majority do believe that movies, series and cartoons are reliable sources of information. 🤔 😊

The majority of humanity is complicit and guilty for its silence, indifference and apathy of all the crimes and all the injustices suffered by indigenous people, governments that are not made up of indigenous people and the elites in power commit a serious crime when at all horrible they call civilization, development and progress:

The majority of humanity is complicit and guilty by its silence, indifference and apathy of all the crimes and all the injustices suffered by indigenous people, governments that are not made up of indigenous people and the elites in power commit a serious crime when consider beauty as uncivilization, savagery, ignorance and backwardness:

It makes me angry that there are advertisements for skin whitening products, this should be considered racism and banned. And because of this there are indigenous people who want to be white and this favors miscegenation, which is a form of extermination of the indigenous.

The reddish skin, slanted or almond-shaped eyes and radiant black hair of the indigenous people is of great beauty. But, the system promotes preference for whites.

Photographs recovered from the Internet based on Fair Use

It is necessary to always remember that: reddish skin is more resistant to solar radiation, absorbs vitamin D from the sun better, is less irritated, and has less risk of skin cancer; Slanted or almond-shaped eyes and dark-colored eyes protect more from the impact of the wind and protect more from sunlight; radiant black hair is more resistant to sunlight; and the small or medium size has less risk of back problems and less risk of spinal problems.

When defenders of colonization say that colonization brought benefits, we must always remember that from the arrival of European settlers to the present: oppression, hatred, domination, invasion, replacement and extermination of indigenous people have been used so that those who are not indigenous (creoles, mestizos and others) have economic benefits and resources to manufacture Western technology, but it does not generate benefits for the indigenous people, what it is about is crushing the indigenous people and keeping them under the yoke so that those who are not indigenous have benefits.

But, many Europeans who defend colonization, and many Europeans, although they do not defend colonization, believe that creoles and mestizos are the same as indigenous. When the majority of Creoles and most mestizos have the same tastes, the same way of thinking, the same way of being and the same vision of the world that Europeans have.

That phrase that we are all equal is used to make indigenous people invisible and is used by the enemies of indigenous people to deny them rights by stating that they should not have different rights because we are all equal.

When genetically the indigenous people are not equal to the majority and the genetics of the indigenous people do make them different in terms of way of being, way of thinking and vision of the world. And furthermore, the indigenous people were on the continent before the European immigrants, before the Creoles, before the mestizos, before the blacks and before the Creoles.

When the European colonizers arrived on the continent, they took most of the land from the indigenous people, and it was these European immigrants, the Creoles, the mestizos, the blacks and mulattoes, who stayed with the majority of the land where the indigenous people lived.

Since the arrival of the European colonizers in the past to the present with the majority (creoles, mestizos, blacks and mulattoes): the indigenous people have only suffered all kinds of atrocities and injustices, and since the indigenous people were before everyone on the continent, and they have suffered dispossession of their lands, invasions and genocide, it is fair that they do not pay taxes for their territories and that they are defended more than the majority.

But, the privileged majority who have never suffered what the indigenous people suffer, who are cursed, bad, despicable, selfish and individualistic due to their Middle Eastern genetics (present in both Europeans and Creoles and mestizos): they always complain that indigenous people have different rights and they always try to harm the indigenous people to maintain their privileges.

The damned majority accuses the indigenous minorities of wanting privileges and of playing victims (victimizing themselves): when it is the damned majority of disastrous and despicable humanity that has always had privileges by harming the indigenous people, and who play themselves the victims (are victimized) with stupid conspiracy theories invented by conservatives.

Colonization from the arrival of European settlers to the present with the majority: acts in two ways, one as a form of predation similar to when giant hornets invade bee hives and kill the bees or when some species of ants exterminate other species of ants and displace them, and the other as a parasite that benefits from its victim until it kills it, or as in the case of the majority of indigenous people who have their minds colonized (minds that suffer from parasitism) with Judeo-Christian beliefs brought by the Europeans and serve their enemies.

When non-indigenous humans invent movies, series and cartoons where aliens invade the earth and exterminate humans, or where aliens take over the bodies of humans and control their minds, those aliens are the reflection of what the majority who are not indigenous do to indigenous people.

The indigenous people, due to their skin color, eye shape, hair color, being more instinctive, their way of being, way of thinking and vision of the world, take more care of the environment and are children of the earth.

But, the majority that is not indigenous, behaves like an extraterrestrial species that invades the earth to destroy, and miscegenation acts as a form of parasite just like the fact that the majority of indigenous people have their minds colonized.

Most non-indigenous people only care about Western money and technology, and place Western money and technology above life.

It is necessary to repeat that: capitalism is not simply commerce and it is not simply buying and selling, capitalism is when money is placed above life and above the environment.

It is one thing to accept that money is important, and quite another thing is to place money above life and above the environment as the criminal Right and the criminal Neoliberals do.

The indigenous people consider themselves children of the land. And that god that the Jews invented in the Torah and in the Tanakh (Old Testament) in which the Christian and Islamic or Muslim religions also believe, says to dominate or subjugate the earth:

Genesis chapter 1, verse 28: Fill the earth and subdue it.

It is curious that those who defend colonization mention sacrifices, when colonization and the colonial system is a constant sacrifice of the indigenous people from the arrival of the colonizers to the present, and you will understand it better if you read my other books.

And that they mention infanticide to justify their hatred of the indigenous people, when all the colonizers were Spanish, Portuguese, English, French or other European nationalities when they invade this continent and wage war on the indigenous people, they kill indigenous children and indigenous women pregnant because that was part of domination, of reducing the indigenous population or decimating it and replacing with other races.

It's like when they mention cannibalism to justify hatred of indigenous people, the same colonizers encouraged cannibalism when they caused indigenous people to suffer extreme poverty by burning their crops and burning their food sources, and also because this thing about indigenous rights is very new from just a few decades ago, a century ago the laws did not consider that the indigenous people were subjects of law, so the enemies of the indigenous people destroyed their food sources.

On the other hand, if someone makes a comment against any race that is not indigenous: Facebook deletes the comment immediately and up to the account.

One day, to cover up a website, they published that if no one reports hate comments against indigenous people, then Facebook does not delete them or sanction those accounts, but if someone writes something about any race that is not indigenous, Facebook does delete them immediately.

To a Zapotec friend from Mexico for writing something against the majority of Europeans, Facebook deleted his comment, and I reported the comments of hatred towards indigenous people by criminals and Facebook does not delete them or sanction them.

And it is the same with Twitter (X), Instagram and YouTube that allow comments that hate indigenous people and, therefore, are part of the genocide and their owners have their hands stained with the blood of indigenous people just like the damn entertainment industry of television, movies, series and cartoons that promote hatred of indigenous people and just like the majority.

Zealot environmentalists say cats are a danger to ecosystems, not most non-indigenous humans.

Europeans who descend from Middle Eastern ancestors (Sumerians, Chaldeans, Canaanites, Babylonians and Persians), like the Arabs, have always practiced hunting for pleasure without it being a necessity to survive, since before Christianity: the Celts, Slavs, Greeks, Romans, Vikings, Saxons and Basques hunted for pleasure without it being a necessity to survive, and later brought pleasure hunting and bullfighting to this continent during colonization.

At present, these Europeans who hunt for pleasure say that cats are a danger to ecosystems, and not them and their descendants (Creoles and mestizos) who hunt for pleasure without being a necessity to survive, who contaminate and destroy the environment, and they believe that civilization, progress and development means living in horrible cities, full of garbage, noise and pollution, and throwing garbage and excrement into the rivers and the sea.

The following screenshot is from a video with the title Feral cats are a problem for the environment published by the YouTube channel called Federación Andaluza de Caza which belongs to an organization in Spain that promotes hunting for pleasure:

Los gatos asilvestrados son un problema para el medio ambiente: nec...

Screenshot recovered from Youtube.

It is like the strategy that these fanatic environmentalists and Europeans who hunt for pleasure use to say that the fault for the destruction of ecosystems is of the cats that have existed for many centuries on this continent and in Europe, and that it is not their fault and of the majority not indigenous.

It's like when they say, to try to take the blame off the majority, that there are 50 or 60 companies that generate the majority of the gases that cause climate change, without mentioning that if these companies exist it is because the majority buys their products.

The same is with the presidents, deputies and senators who harm the indigenous people, it is the majority's fault for voting for those presidents, deputies and senators; for treating indigenous people who defend themselves or take revenge as criminals, savages and terrorists; for being indifferent to the lives of the indigenous people; and for supporting the media such as television and the entertainment industry such as films, series and cartoons that promote hatred of indigenous people.

But, the majority of humanity is allowed everything and everything is justified, and that is why the world is being destroyed.

Both fanatic environmentalists and Europeans who hunt for pleasure and who vote for VOX (the party that is closely related to genocidal right-wing criminals on this continent such as Jair Bolsonaro, Javier Milei, Donald Trump, among others) affirm that the blame for the destruction of The ecosystems belong to cats and they are the same ones that support livestock farming that is dedicated to raising cows, bulls, goats and sheep, in addition to being the same ones that support the religions that emerged in the Middle East such as the Jewish religions and the Christian religions, and the same ones who support both neo-Nazis and Zionists at the same time.

But, all these who say that cats are a danger to ecosystems; They never mention that to make pastures, slaughterhouses and enclosures for cows, bulls, sheep and goats, many forests and jungles are destroyed, and this causes the death of millions of wild animals as their ecosystems are destroyed; They never mention that cows and bulls, having a larger digestive system than that of other animals and that of humans, excessively generate many methane and carbon dioxide emissions; and they never mention that the urine of cows and bulls produces excessive emissions of nitrogen and nitrous oxide, in addition to contaminating the water with the blood and waste of these animals.

Contrary to what many think, many environmentalists are not against hunting for pleasure or bullfighting. Eco-fascists, for example, see no problem for the environment in eating red meat, milk or dairy products.

The Celts are considered environmentalists for having monocultures of trees that they considered sacred, and the Celts hunted for pleasure and destroyed forests and jungles to make pastures for cows, bulls and sheep, as happened in Ireland. In fact, the majority do not see problems for the environment in the livestock brought by the Europeans.

One of the founders of the environmental organization WWF named Bernardo de Lippe-Biesterfeld had a hobby of hunting for pleasure. Bernard of Lippe-Biesterfeld also supported the Nazi party.

Another of the founders of the WWF (from which Green Peace later emerged) is Julian Huxley. Julian Huxley supported Eugenics, which consists of eliminating and sterilizing human races considered inferior to Europeans.

The WWF had King Juan Carlos of Spain as honorary president. King Juan Carlos had a hobby of hunting endangered animals in Africa. That's why white environmentalism has always been a problem and a farce.

In the Han ethnic group in China: Fenghuang is a bird that symbolizes the union of Ying and Yang ☯, the union of complements (woman and man, cold and heat, night and day, darkness and light), balance, and also Fenghuang is the name that the Han ethnic group gave to a place.

Illustration depicting Fenghuang, recovered from the Internet

Just like the Fenghuang in the Han ethnic group of China, the indigenous ethnic groups of the Abya Yala continent (to which the colonizers gave the name America) had their sacred birds that acted as messengers of the gods such as the hummingbird, the macaw, the quetzal, the pavón and others:

It is necessary to remember that in addition to the army and the police, which in these colonialist countries have always acted as enemies of the indigenous people at the service of colonialist governments and colonialist elites:

in the United States and Canada, the greatest enemies of the indigenous people and those who murdered indigenous people the most were the cowboys.

Images recovered from the Internet

It is necessary to remember that the extermination of indigenous people of the Selknam ethnic group in Argentina and Chile was caused by businessmen to use those lands for livestock farming that is dedicated to raising those animals brought by the Europeans and that it was the same thing that happened with many indigenous ethnic groups throughout the continent where the perpetrators were mainly ranchers who raised those animals brought by the Europeans:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

It is necessary to remember that the Amazons where indigenous ethnic groups live are destroyed in a large percentage by the livestock that is dedicated to the breeding of those animals brought by the Europeans, and that the large percentage of soybean cultivation that causes destruction of the Amazons is used to prepare fattening concentrates for these animals:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

What governments and elites in power do with indigenous people is to scare them and provoke terror in them, and discredit them by making them believe that they are inferior, ugly or bad, in order to be able to dominate and subjugate them, and even make them hate themselves and develop a masochistic relationship with their sadistic oppressors.

Always remember the following indigenous cartoon character dressed as a cowboy who serves the white settlers (that is, those who hate him):

Images recovered from the Internet

When neo-Nazis, Zionists, Hispanists, and advocates of other forms of colonization mention that Europeans had indigenous allies who helped them colonize the continent, is a way of telling the indigenous people of the present that they should do the same to be allies of those who hate them.

This is what the indigenous people who are in favor of Jair Bolsonaro do:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

For example, the following indigenous traitor who was a soldier and belongs to Jair Bolsonaro's political party called Silvia Waiãpi to humiliate and denigrate the indigenous people told the lie that the indigenous people throw their excrement into the river water:

Sílvia Waiãpi uses this lie to agree with presidents and soldiers who belonged to Freemasonry and Christian religions such as the Freemason and Catholic Domingo Faustino Sarmiento of Argentina who affirmed that indigenous people are repugnant and disgusting beings:

Here you can see the lie of conservatives who invent conspiracy theories when they claim that the church and Freemasonry are enemies or that Christianity and Freemasonry are enemies.

When in reality, Freemasonry is the same as the church and Christianity, and it would not be surprising if these conservatives who invent conspiracy theories, in addition to being Christians, are also Freemasons used to misinform.

Domingo Faustino Sarmiento said: - Will we be able to exterminate the Indians? For the savages of America I feel an invincible disgust without being able to remedy it. Those scoundrels are nothing more than some disgusting Indians. Incapable of progress, their extermination is providential and useful, sublime and great.

When neo-Nazis, Zionists, Hispanists and defenders of other forms of colonization refer to the indigenous people as savages, they affirm that the indigenous people are uncivilized and that they did not provide contributions, they speak of the colonizers as if they were brave heroes, and Hispanic channels like EL VIEJO DE HISTORIA (Pura historia de Chile) and RATAS NEGRAS pay tribute to Inés Suárez who caused the murder of indigenous chiefs:

They are ways that these monsters have of humiliating the indigenous people and making the indigenous people feel inferior (although the indigenous people never respond to them), and ways of telling the indigenous people that it is best that they submit, that they allow themselves to be dominated, that they forgive, turn the other cheek and have love for their enemies who hate them.

Also, when channels like indiomamon claim that pre-Hispanic indigenous people lacked good hygiene, that they were dirty, that Latinos with European features have beauty and that indigenous people are ugly, and that indigenous men have small genital organs, these are ways that these monsters They have to promote hatred of indigenous people.

But, even so, many of these Hispanists (defenders of Spanish colonization) and defenders of other forms of European colonization sometimes have the cowardice of denying that they hate the indigenous people, and softening colonization by saying that it improved the lives of the indigenous people, when only the lives of Creoles, mestizos and Europeans improved (not the lives of indigenous people).

Also, it is very suspicious that video platforms such as YouTube and social networks such as Facebook, Twitter and Instagram allow the promotion of hatred against indigenous people, but, when it comes to hateful comments towards people who are not indigenous, YouTube and social networks if they delete the comments and if they delete the accounts that make them.

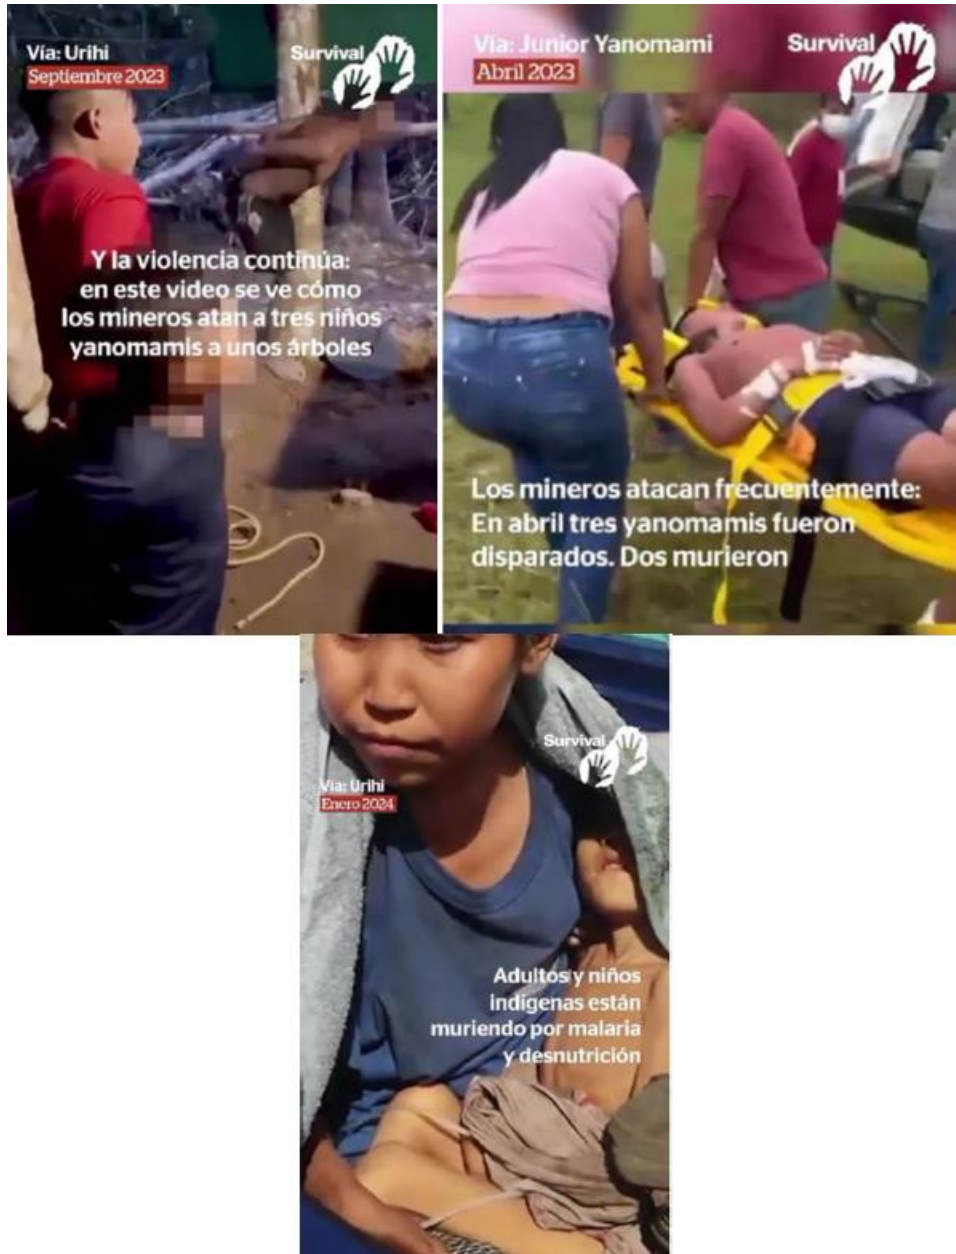

The sources of the following information are Survival International:

The invasion of illegal gold miners into Yanomami territory intensified during Bolsonaro's term. The situation remains serious despite the operation launched by Lula's government to expel them in January 2023.

The miners worked even at night to avoid being discovered and expelled. Now, the miners invade the territory again. They are so sure that they will not be punished, that they even publish about their activities on social networks.

And the violence continues in a video where you can see how the miners tie three Yanomami children to some trees. Miners attack frequently: in April, three Yanomami were shot and two died. Indigenous adults and children are dying from malaria and malnutrition.

Screenshots recovered from video released by Survival International.

What the indigenous ethnic groups continue to suffer in all the countries of this continent, and also what the indigenous ethnic groups of Asia and Africa continue to suffer at the present, and the silence, indifference and apathy of the majority that is not indigenous: have no forgiveness.

I would sentence those miners to the death penalty, but a slow death penalty so that they suffer what they have made the indigenous people suffer.

For all the crimes, injustices and atrocities that the indigenous ethnic groups of all the countries of this continent Abya Yala (to which the colonizers gave the name America), the indigenous ethnic groups of Africa and the indigenous ethnic groups of Asia continue to suffer in the present: If I had the power I would make the elites in power, the governments, these businessmen, and the majority of humanity who are not indigenous who are equally complicit and guilty for their silence, apathy and indifference, and for treating the indigenous people of criminals, savages and terrorists when they defend themselves or take revenge, I would make them suffer three times as much as they have made the indigenous people suffer so that they suffer all the damage that they have done to the indigenous people.

In the Bible, this fictional character invented by the nefarious Jews (who are a religion and not a race) of the Jewish god rejects the vegetable offerings that Cain offered him and only accepts the sacrifice of lambs that Abel offered him.

When the character of Abel sacrifices lambs that are peaceful and herbivorous animals, this represents the destruction of the innocent, and that is what pleases the Jewish god who is in the image and likeness of the majority of humanity.

But, since Christianity teaches humanity to see non-human animals as mere things or objects, the majority of stupid humanity considers the fictional character of Cain to be evil and the fictional character of Abel to be good.

Proof that this New Age clowning is the same as Christianity is that these clowns have come to say that Cain was a reptilian, just as they have said that the indigenous god Quetzalcoatl was a reptilian, as they do in the following capture from a video circulating on Facebook:

Screenshot recovered from Facebook

Something very dangerous about this video and that is 100% racist is that this old man claims that there are humans who descend from Cain who have reptilian genetics and humans who descend from Abel who have more human genetics.

The New Age by inventing tall, white extraterrestrials, with light eyes and blonde hair like the Pleiadians and Venusians, and affirming that they are the good ones, and inventing gray extraterrestrials and reptilian extraterrestrials, and affirming that they are the bad ones, proves to be 100% racist.

I don't understand how the majority of ignorant humanity doesn't realize that New Age and conspiracy theories invented by conservatives are exactly the same as Christianity.

I am quite ashamed of having been New Age in my past, but at the same time I believe that knowing the New Age inside and its different sects is what allows me to be able to denounce them in the present.

The Mormons or Church of Jesus Christ of the last days that originated in the United States, are totally linked to Freemasonry and are a Christian religion, daughter of the Catholic, just like the Evangelical, Pentecostal, Jehovah's

Witnesses, Adventists and others: they affirm in some from his writings that the indigenous people are Laminites who descend from Cain, and that, for this reason, the fictional Judeo-Christian god cursed them with having reddish skin, black hair, and suffering extermination and hatred.

And speaking of this nonsense that is the New Age: the Colombian Mafe Walker who claims to speak an extraterrestrial language participates in a Colombian trash program called La Casa De Los Famosos.

Screenshot recovered from Facebook

Many rightly write that it seems like a total antics, mocking emojis and that television is increasingly dedicated to promoting stupidity. But, many others write that Mafe seems like a sweet and tender woman, and that the important thing is her hippie message that everything has to be love.

When someone has love and peace with those who harm the innocent, they are being complicit with those who harm the innocent, and, therefore, just as guilty. Warrior energy is important to fight against tyrants, to fight against those who harm the weakest, to fight against those who harm the most vulnerable and to fight against those who harm the innocent.

And yes, on the one hand, the New Age in a hippie way says that everything has to be unconditional love and peace in an absolutist way, without balance.

On the other hand, this same New Age always blames the victims of injustice for what happens to them, stating that they are paying karma from past lives, that they attracted it with their mind through the law of attraction, and that chose before incarnating through soul-to-soul agreements with those who harm them.

The same Freemasonry that inspired the motto equality, liberty and fraternity of the French Revolution is the same Freemasonry that celebrates Freemason presidents and Freemason military officers such as Domingo Faustino Sarmiento, John Milton Chivington and Andrew Jackson who promoted visceral hatred of indigenous people, who expelled most indigenous people from their territories so that non-indigenous people would have economic freedom and freedom to harm indigenous people, and they caused massacres of indigenous people.

And the reason why the politically correct left seems just as disastrous to me as the right and the neoliberals or libertarians, and I will never be politically correct, is because when I look at photographs of Freemasons, I can perceive that if there is evil which comes from genetics:

Photographs recovered from the Internet.

In those previous photos there appear Catholic priests supporting Freemasonry, and Jair Bolsonaro and his son Flávio Bolsonaro who are from the evangelical Christian religion supporting Freemasonry, then possibly: the majority of conservatives who invent conspiracy theories where they claim that Freemasonry is the enemy of the Catholic Church or that Freemasonry is the enemy of Christianity, whether they are Freemasons who seek to misinform.

An example of how all human races in their beginnings made human sacrifices, and the white races also made them in their beginnings, is the Greek story of Polyxena who was sacrificed by Neoptolemus, although the story is supposed to be a myth, it is known that white races like the Greeks did make human sacrifices in their beginnings, and that the Celts, Vikings and Romans in their beginnings made these human sacrifices:

Conservatives and defenders of Christian religions say that crimes committed by Christian religions are black legends, and that Christian Europeans brought civilization and progress to this continent (meaning by civilization and progress to pollute and destroy the environment in exchange for money and Western technology).

But, the same documents of the inquisition and books written by inquisitors such as El Martillo De Las Brujas, are evidence that Christianity did commit all those crimes and that they are not black legends.

It is incredible when these conservative Christians of the present deny that what other Christians wrote in the past is true, it is the same as when they deny what the European colonizers themselves accepted in their letters and books.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

A human sacrifice is any killing in the name of a god. And that was what the inquisition did, torturing and murdering other people in the name of the Judeo-Christian god. So these defenders of Christianity should not be clowns and should accept that Christian Europeans made human sacrifices.

There are parts of the Bible where the Jews recognize that the fictional character of their god YHVH or YeHoVaH is the same fictional character of the devil or satan invented by themselves:

2 Samuel chapter 24, verse 1: The anger of the god was kindled again against Israel, and he incited David against them to say, Go, take a census of Israel and Judah.

1 Chronicles chapter 21, verse 1: But Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel.

This cynicism of the Jews to recognize that their god YHVH or YeHoVaH represents the same fictional character as the devil or Satan, is the same as the Masonic duality of the black and white checkered floor, and the red apron and the blue apron, which represent false opposed to the service of the same master:

Photographs recovered from the Internet

This is the reason why Christian religions promoted social Darwinism in the inquisition and colonization, and satanic religions at the service of the political right and the United States government such as The Church of Satan founded by Anton LaVey, The Temple of Seth founded by Michael Aquino and the ONA (Order of Nine Angles) promote social Darwinism. False opposites in the service of the same master, two sides of the same coin.

But, there are people on the Left who are still determined to make people believe that atheism, Satanism and neo-paganism of white ethnic groups such as Wicca are the opposite of Christianity.

There are parts of the Bible, where the prophets of this god invented by the Jews, recognize that this god that the stupid majority considers the true and perfect, is a fictitious god who is a liar:

Jeremiah chapter 4, verse 10: And I said, Jehovah God! Truly you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying: You will have peace; for the sword has come to the soul.

2 Thessalonians chapter 2, verse 11: Therefore God sends them a deceptive power, so that they believe a lie.

When the Jews invented the Torah (first five gospels of the old testament) which Christians call the Pentateuch and the Tanakh (the other gospels of the old testament), an old testament in which the Christian and Muslim or Islamic religions also believe: they were quite cynical in some parts when they recognize that their god represents deception.

But, the cynicism of Jews and Christians has no limits, when they recognize that the fictional character of the Judeo-Christian god represents exactly the same as the fictional character of the devil or satan:

John chapter 8, verse 44: Your father is the devil; You belong to him, and you try to do what he wants. The devil has been a murderer from the beginning. He doesn't stand by the truth, and he never tells the truth. When he tells lies, he speaks as what he is; because he is a liar and is the father of lies.

Many stupid people may say that Freemasonry and the Abrahamic religions (Jewish, Christian and Islamic) with these false opposites and contradictions maintain a balance.

What balance if they are contaminating and destroying the entire planet?

What balance if they contaminate and destroy ecosystems, and ecosystems where there is a real balance between life and death?

What balance if 95% of the world's population is made up of non-indigenous humans and only 5% of the world's population are indigenous?

No balance.

The indigenous ethnic groups did make a real balance between life and death, and were part of the different ecosystems. But, governments and elites want to replace all indigenous people with humans who are not indigenous, and with non-indigenous humans who only know how to pollute and destroy the planet, without a balance.

What the Right and the Neoliberals or Libertarians do to promote hate speech against indigenous people, to favor those who invade indigenous territories, to send damned police and damned soldiers to expel indigenous people from their territories and to attack or even murder indigenous people, and Treating the few indigenous people who defend themselves or take revenge as savages, criminals or terrorists is not balanced, because indigenous people are only 5% of the world's population.

And what the left does is to keep the indigenous people in conformity, dominated and subjugated with Christian religions, pacifism and the ideology of equality so that they do not defend themselves, so that they do not take revenge, so that they have love for their enemies and so that they allow to hurt them, to give crumbs to the indigenous people, to make people believe that indigenous people and mestizo people are the same, and to always place those who are not indigenous as a priority above the indigenous people, is not balance, because the indigenous people are only the 5% of the world population.

Conservatives who invent conspiracy theories make it believe that the majority of human trafficking victims are non-Indigenous people. In reality, the majority of human trafficking victims are indigenous people, because this damned society sees the lives of indigenous people as disposable and makes indigenous people invisible.

And the entertainment industry such as movies, series and cartoons have promoted hatred of indigenous people for decades.

Why are these elites and governments focused on causing and allowing the disappearance of indigenous women, and the damn media like television remain silent about it?

Because these damn people know that if many indigenous women disappear, there will be fewer indigenous people in the world. And since governments and elites are abominable beings, it may be that they carry out many atrocities in secret and what is known about them is only a small part.

When the Australian Peter Scully traveled to the Philippines where he made videos for the Deep Web like Daisy's Destruction where girls were tortured, abused, raped and murdered, and then he was arrested, he never said who were the millionaires who financed and bought those videos in the United States and Europe.

It must also be remembered that the Vatican has always covered up priests who abuse or rape children, and that governments and elites interact with the Vatican and pay visits to the Vatican.

And although these governments and elites pretend to be 100% Christian, in reality, they are New Age, they use Christianity to encourage and promote hatred of minorities in public, but, Freemasonry is a mixture of Judeo-Christian beliefs with Greek, Persian and Egyptian beliefs, the founders of Celtic paganisms such as Druidism and Viking paganisms such as Odinism were Freemasons, and there is much evidence that the Vatican promotes the New Age.

Is possible that issues such as human sacrifices and cannibalism that these governments and elites condemn in public and use to promote hatred of minorities, they themselves practice human sacrifices and cannibalism in secret, the massacres of indigenous people are human sacrifices and the Baka in Africa have been victims of cannibalism.

The entertainment industry such as movies, series and cartoons invent monsters that murder and torture non-indigenous humans in scenes of extreme gore, but in reality, these monsters reflect many who are not indigenous. Part of cynicism is inventing monsters that represent what they themselves are.

Also, on many occasions the Vatican and the United States government have promoted the New Age belief in extraterrestrials that visit us, and they may even use holograms, airplanes with those shapes and drones with those shapes for that, because They know that the majority cares more about knowing if there is life on other planets and they do not care about taking care of life on this planet Earth. And the entertainment industry such as movies, series and cartoons have done their part in this.

They have said that in military bases like Area 51 they hide extraterrestrial beings and extraterrestrial technology, but, what if in reality in military bases like Area 51 they carry out many experiments, atrocities and crimes that they keep secret, and what they make believe that they hide to aliens is just a way to divert attention from what really happens on those military bases.

Peter Scully in his statements said that he had clients for his videos of torture and rape of children in the United States, Australia and the United Kingdom, and that some of his clients paid up to $10 000 for those videos. Only powerful people and millionaires pay $10 000.

Photographs recovered from the Internet.

Even when he was arrested, Peter Scully smiles, these are monsters that should not exist. The gore scenes that are increasingly common in movies and series are ways of teaching the majority of the population to see extreme violence as something fun.

The following is the photo of the child who was tortured, abused, raped and murdered in the Daisy's Destruction videos that were sold on the Deep Web:

Photograph recovered from the Internet

The monsters who did this to this child, financed and paid for these videos, should have received the death penalty. But, they did not receive the death penalty because of those who defend the human rights of these criminals, and they only arrested Peter Scully and the women accomplices, but they did not arrest the millionaires from the United States, Australia and the United Kingdom who financed and bought those videos.

The millionaire monsters from the United States, Australia and the United Kingdom who financed and paid up to 10 thousand dollars for these videos are still free with impunity, so they possibly continue doing this, and even teaching their children and grandchildren to do this.

In 2015, a room guarded by police where there was material produced by Peter Scully caught fire, and to the question of why a room guarded by police catches fire so easily, the answer is because there are very powerful millionaire people who are involved.

The company that Peter Scully created on the Deep Web to sell these videos was called NLF (No limits fun) which can be translated as fun without limits, which shows how these monsters in power find it fun to abuse, torture, rape and murder innocents.

Screenshot recovered from the Internet

Other of Peter Scully's clients who bought these videos were millionaires from Brazil and Germany.

Peter Scully and the women who were his accomplices looked for low-income families in the Philippines to offer them that if they gave them their underage daughters it would give them a better life, and they also offered street children clothes, food and money to travel with them.

The following photograph is of the skeletal remains of one of the child murdered by Peter Scully, and which were found by the Philippine police:

In Canada, mass graves containing the bodies of hundreds of indigenous children have been found in former Catholic schools:

The Hispanists (defenders of Spanish colonization), the defenders of Portuguese colonization, the defenders of English colonization, the defenders of French colonization and all those who promote hatred of indigenous people, have affirmed that all indigenous ethnic groups and all indigenous people of each ethnic group practiced cannibalism.

The movies have made people believe the same because television and the entertainment industry such as cinema have been the biggest promoters of hatred of indigenous people. In the film Cannibal Holocaust the Yanomami are defamed by claiming that they practice cannibalism and the film contains a real scene where a turtle is killed.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

In addition, after causing the murder of indigenous people of the Guarani-Kaiowa ethnic group by military police (PM), Jair Bolsonaro caused the death of 570 children of the Yanomami ethnic group who died from malnutrition and malaria because Jair Bolsonaro supported the illegal miners who invaded their territories and allowed these miners to invade Yanomami territory, and in Lula's pacifist government these crimes against the Yanomami and against the Guarani-Kaiowa went unpunished and continue to be committed.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

We must not forget that Donald Trump, Santiago Abascal of the VOX party of Spain, Javier Milei, Agustín Laje, Eduardo Verástegui and Carolina Rivera Añez (daughter of Jeanine Añez) are complicit and guilty of these murders of indigenous people that occur in the present by supporting to Jair Bolsonaro.

Photographs recovered from the Internet

And that the conservatives who invent conspiracy theories where they make us believe that the majority of those who are not indigenous are innocent victims of the elites, who talk about the 2030 agenda and that Freemasonry wants to reduce the world population (when the only ones they want to exterminate it is the indigenous people and the indigenous people if they are victims of the elites), they are complicit and guilty of these murders of indigenous people for supporting criminals like Donald Trump, Javier Milei and Jair Bolsonaro.

Jair Bolsonaro repeats the lies of the film Cannibal Holocaust by stating in a video that the Yanomami practice cannibalism, saying that he observed an Indian being cooked in Surucucu (Yanomami territory), that he wanted to see the Indian being cooked, that he would eat meat of Indian without problems and who ate Indian.

In some places in the Congo, invaders of the forests where the Baka pygmies live have committed cannibalism against the Baka. Some guerrilla groups believe that eating Baka meat gives them strength before each battle.

And we must remember that the fictitious god invented by the Jews, whom the defenders of colonization and those who hate the indigenous people, in many parts of the Old Testament (Torah and Tanakh) states that he will cause fathers and mothers to convert into cannibals to devour their own sons and daughters:

Leviticus chapter 26, verses 26, 27 and 28: If you still do not listen to me, but proceed against me in opposition, I will proceed against you in anger, and will punish you even seven times for your sins. And you will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters.

Deuteronomy Chapter 28, verse 53: And you will eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your sons and your daughters, which the Lord your God gave you, in the place and in the trouble with which your enemy will distress you.

Jeremiah chapter 19, verse 9: And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and each one will eat the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress with which their enemies and those who seek will press their lives.

Actually, when the Jews invented this fictitious god, inspired by the Zoroastrianism of the Persians, they invented a monster, and a monster, tulpa (mental creation) or archetype that influences the collective consciousness (which the New Agers defend so much) of the majority, but the stupid majority does not reason and is foolish to continue with what their parents taught them as children.

The Christian religions represent most paintings and statues of angels, saints and virgins with European features, and the New Age represents the aliens they believe in as Ashtar Sheran and the ascended masters they believe in as Saint Germain with European features, and this is because they hate the physique of the indigenous people (reddish skin, black hair and almond-shaped or slanted eyes):

Images recovered from the Internet

The neo-Nazis, the trash from the right-wing parties like VOX and the neoliberals or libertarians are anti-immigrant and say that Europe should be white and they venerate the European colonizers whom they consider heroes who dominated, subjugated and defeated the indigenous people who for they represent savagery, sexual immorality defined with their Christian ideology, ignorance and everything reprehensible.

Also, neopagans of white ethnicities such as Odinism (Viking paganism) consider the Aryans who invaded and colonized India as heroes for defeating and dominating the Dravidians (indigenous population of India), and that we already know that all ethnic groups whites are of Indo-European or Eurasian origin, and they are genetically related to the Aryans who came from Iran and were part of the Persian empire.

These neo-Nazis and right-wing parties like VOX are the most stupid thing that exists because the European colonizers were the causes of immigration, the European colonizers were the ones who brought black slaves and indigenous slaves to Europe, that is, those who brought immigrants to Europe.

If the Europeans had never invaded and colonized this continent, and had never invaded and colonized Africa: Europe would have remained white, Africa would have remained black and this continent would have remained indigenous, and this is the right thing, that the human races remain in their ecosystems, and not multiculturalism.

But, Right-wing garbage like VOX and neo-Nazis complain about things caused by the same colonizers they so venerate.

There are indigenous people who emigrate to Europe, because the descendants of the European colonizers (creoles and mestizos), and the governments formed by creoles and mestizos make their lives impossible on this continent.

If the European colonizers had never invaded this continent and the continent of Asia, no indigenous people would seek to emigrate to Europe. Therefore, immigration was something caused by the European colonizers themselves.

The majority of mestizos, even if they are brown mestizos, are equal to Europeans in their tastes, ways of being, ways of thinking and vision of the world. They say hateful phrases towards the indigenous people, such as that miscegenation is improving the race as if the indigenous people were inferior or a defect, they consider the indigenous people as ugly, they are apathetic and indifferent to what the indigenous people suffer and they vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people.

The correct thing would be for the majority of Creoles, the majority of mestizos and all politicians who are not indigenous to go to live in Europe because they love Europe and they always talk about how they would like to travel to Europe, and they always talk about Europeans as if they were the best, when the majority of Europeans despise them, and believe that Creoles and mestizos born on this continent are indigenous.

Most indigenous people have reddish skin, and their reddish skin is of great beauty, as are their almond-shaped or slanted eyes, and their radiant black hair. But, when miscegenation occurs, many times the brown mestizos have more opaque skin and lose those reddish tones that are reflected in the sunlight.

Regarding environmentalists who always complain about cats for being invasive species: cows and bulls are not native to this continent, cows and bulls are native to Europe, the Middle East and certain regions of Africa.

Cows and bulls arrived on the continent in 1493 when Christopher Columbus introduced the first cows and bulls of Spanish origin. And in India, cows and bulls were imported by the Aryan colonizers who came from Iran and were part of the Persian empire.

Cows, bulls, sheep and goats must have stayed in Europe, certain areas of Africa and the Middle East because those are their places of origin.

If we talk about the majority of Hindus today, the majority, even if they are brown mestizos, their entire culture such as the caste system, the absolutist way of thinking of all or nothing, lack an intermediate point of view that makes a balance, the fanaticism, their religions, and unhygienic practices that endanger health, come from the Aryans. And Buddhism emerged from Hinduism.

El aporte de India al desarrollo de la ganadería en Brasil

Por - 24 de Junio 2022

Publication titled: India's contribution to the development of livestock farming in Brazil. Screenshot retrieved from:

Excerpt from that livestock website: At the end of the 19th century, European settlers invaded indigenous lands in the state of Mato Grosso to establish livestock ranches. The problem was the tropical climate, which was not suitable for northern European cattle breeds accustomed to colder climates. Determined to succeed, ranchers introduced special pastures and decided to import cows from distant India, a country that had similar climatic conditions.

Although the inhabitants of India are currently called Hindus, in the past they were called Indians, and the word Indians is a derivation of India. When Christopher Columbus arrived on this continent he thought he had arrived in India.

But, in reality: as I explained in another publication, Indians (inhabitants of India) are similar in their culture to Europeans, Creoles and mestizos, and not to indigenous people.

You always have to ask yourself why politicians who promote hatred of indigenous people and organizations like the CIA that promote the same hatred of indigenous people are related to Judaism and Christianity, and also to Hinduism and Buddhism, in the style of the New Age:

Publication titled: Indigenous threats according to the CIA. Screenshot retrieved from: <https://www.alainet.org/es/articulo/105052?language=en>

Excerpt from the text: As another exercise of its imperial power, the United States, through its National Intelligence Council, an agency of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), released its 2015 Global Trends report. The newspaper La Jornada of Mexico, published extracts of the document on December 19 and on the 31st El País of Spain did so. According to the CIA, Latin America has a new threat to face, indigenous resistance movements.

The Persians who practiced Zoroastrianism called themselves Aryans. These Aryans had the same genetics as the current Arabs, and when the Aryans from Iran invaded and colonized India, interbreeding between Aryans and Dravidians occurred, and the system of castes where the high castes were made up of those with lighter skin, all white ethnicities (Minoans, Greeks, Romans, Celts, Vikings, Norse, Saxons and Slavs) have this same Indo-European or Eurasian origin.

All this is evidence that at first when the Indo-Europeans or Eurasians emigrated to populate all of Europe, the majority of them had brown skin, but as the climate of Europe was colder this favored those who had lighter skin, As time passed, their skin became whiter as an adaptation to the environment and they developed more body hair as a form of environmental protection. Additionally, since their diet consisted mostly of red meat, they developed more body fat and more bloodthirsty instincts and his body was modified (epigenetics).

In fact, if we look at the art of the Minoans and the Mycenaeans, who were cultures of Indo-European or Eurasian origin from which Greeks, Romans, Celts and others emerged: most of them were brown-skinned, only white people occupied a higher hierarchy within royalty and within society, and therefore, they are represented in the center or in front of the others in most Minoan and Mycenaean art:

Photographs of Minoan and Mycenaean art recovered from the Internet.

How the New Age is a religious salad, and they mix the Judeo-Christian god (who condemns all forms of magic and worship of other gods with death), and his servants (Jesus Christ, angels, virgins and saints) with the belief in other gods and magical practices. The New Age often also takes over indigenous practices such as shamanism and many of them call themselves shamans.

The problem is that many of these New Age believe that they are indigenous, even though they do not have their way of being, they do not have their way of thinking and they do not have their vision of the world, therefore, they are part of the replaced. And there have been cases of these New Age shamans who exercise violence towards true shamans who are indigenous:

Bukele vs la Agenda 2030: ¿Qué piensa el presidente de El Salvador?

Publication titled: Bukele vs the 2030 Agenda: What does the president of El Salvador think? Screenshot recovered from: <https://sirse.info/bukele-vs-la-agenda-2030-que-piensa-el-presidente-de-el-salvador/>

Although it must be recognized that Nayib Bukele's treatment of the gangs has been correct and that a strong hand must be taken against the gangs, and this is the only good thing that Nayib Bukele's government has had and that is why it wins in El Salvador, too, innocent people have been arrested based on prejudice.

And since Nayib Bukele has the same colonialist concept of development and progress where he considers that what is modern are cities full of garbage and destroying the natural environment in exchange for money and Western technology, he has prohibited sales on the streets in the cities, thereby causes people with limited resources to suffer more hunger and needs by prohibiting them from selling on the streets to favor business in commercial premises, in order, according to him, to modernize the country (by modernizing he means making it more European or similar to the United States), which means in the future cause the extermination of indigenous people.

What happens is that the pacifist left like the president of Colombia called Gustavo Petro do not criticize Nayib Bukele for what he should be criticized for, they criticize Nayib Bukele for his treatment of the gangs, and with this they favor the right and the neoliberal or libertarian.

At first, Nayib Bukele claimed to be from the Left, but then when leftists like Gustavo Petro and the ONU began to criticize him for his treatment of gangs, then he became more on the side of the political right and neoliberals or libertarians, just like the atheist Dalas Review who, after claiming that his feminist ex-girlfriends made false complaints against him, began to promote more the political right and neoliberals.

In fact, I always remember that YouTubers and Influencers from the political right and neoliberals began to gain a lot of influence for their videos criticizing feminism.

As part of the plan of Masonic duality represented by the black and white chess floor, and the red apron and the blue apron: the political left always does and says things that benefit the political right, the neoliberals or libertarians and capitalism.

Outside of the political left or the political right, Nayib Bukele was always another colonizer because he always made the indigenous people invisible, his priority was never the indigenous people, and his priority was always the criollos and mestizos over the indigenous people.

Nayib Bukele once condemned the genocide of indigenous children in Catholic schools in Canada, but Nayib Bukele is a Christian and this genocide of indigenous children in Canada was caused by Christianity.

And, on the other hand, politicians often condemn the crimes and genocides that indigenous people suffered in the past, but they do not care about the crimes, injustices and genocides that indigenous people continue to suffer in the present.

The majority has that attitude of when the indigenous people have suffered extermination, they condemn this when all this has been done, but at the moment when these exterminations of indigenous people are happening, they remain silent, apathetic, indifferent and vote for the politicians who cause these exterminations, and they treat indigenous people who defend themselves or take revenge as criminals, terrorists or savages.

When Nayib Bukele talks about gender ideology and the 2030 agenda, he shows that he was always part of the political and neoliberal right.

But, in addition, those who began to talk about gender ideology and the 2030 agenda were the conservatives who invented conspiracy theories, which is why Nayib Bukele proves to be a believer in conspiracy theories invented by conservatives, and those conspiracy theories are invented by conservatives that provide support to the political right and neoliberals or libertarians.

On the other hand, they talk about the word ideology as if it will always mean something bad, when ideology simply means a set of ideas, and the Christian, conservative, political right, and neoliberal or libertarian ideas that they promote are ideologies because they are based on a system of ideas.

When I teach sexuality and affectivity classes at a school, what is taught in those classes is to prevent sexually transmitted diseases, to prevent unwanted pregnancies, to seek help in case of suffering sexual abuse or rape and to detect the signs that a person is a victim, to seek help if they suffer any type of violence, to prevent bullying and to respect the LGBT population.

Respecting the LGBT population is not the same as teaching students to be homosexual, but these stupid conservatives who make up conspiracy theories believe that teaching to respect homosexuals is the same as teaching students to be homosexual.

Furthermore, in these sexuality and emotional classes, pornography is not taught, and if there are teachers who commit sexual abuse that has nothing to do with these classes, there are also cases of religion teachers who commit sexual abuse against students.

To finish this topic, these stupid criminals refer to sexuality and affectivity classes in schools and colleges as an imposition, when in reality: religion classes in schools and colleges are the true imposition.

And the fact that the media such as television, and the entertainment industry such as movies and series promote Judeo-Christian beliefs is Christian imposition and dictatorship.

<https://twitter.com/nayibbukele/status/1410300190163193856>

He forgets to mention that: these physical, verbal and sexual abuses, and these exterminations of indigenous children, happened in Catholic schools in Canada, and that, therefore, they were caused by Christianity.

Therefore, when Nayib Bukele pretends to condemn the extermination of indigenous children in Canada, but only the exterminations of indigenous people in the past and not the exterminations of indigenous people in the present, Nayib Bukele is just a clown:

Right and Left are part of the same colonial plan of Freemasonry, and the situation for the indigenous people will only change when only the indigenous people rule on the continent (not the European immigrants, not the blacks, not the mulattoes, not the Creoles and not the mestizos)), and the entire continent of Abya Yala (to which the Europeans gave the name America) unite to be a single country with a single flag, and a currency that celebrates the indigenous people and not the colonists.

The homelands, republics or countries on this continent to which the colonizers gave the name America: were founded with the extermination of the majority of the indigenous people to replace them with European immigrants, Creoles and mestizos.

When the Spanish-speaking countries became independent from Spain, Brazil became independent from Portugal, and the United States and Canada became independent from England and France: the expulsion of indigenous people from their territories increased, the invasion of indigenous territories increased, and the massacres of indigenous people by ranchers, and police and military personnel who followed the orders of presidents and politicians elected by the majority increased.

An example of this is Uruguay, it is said that this damned country when it became independent from Spain in 1831: it murdered all the indigenous people by order of the founding government of the republic, state or country of Uruguay.

The independence of the countries of this continent from European countries was never to benefit the indigenous people, it was always about benefiting European immigrants, Creoles and mestizos who continued with the hatred of the indigenous people, with the oppression of the indigenous people and with extermination of the majority of indigenous people in exchange for privileges, money and Western technology.

Therefore, when in schools (primary) and colleges (secondary) they teach love for the country and to worship a flag: they are teaching to love the hatred of indigenous people, the oppression of indigenous people and the extermination of indigenous people to benefit European immigrants, Creoles and mestizos.

According to Protestants, if Catholics worship images it is idolatry and according to Catholics if someone worships other gods or nature spirits it is idolatry. But, both Catholics and Protestants think it is good that the country is idolized in schools and colleges, they think it is good that a flag is idolized and it is good that a piece of land is idolized.

The borders between the different countries of this continent are only imaginary borders invented by colonial, murderous, genocidal, Freemasons and Christian governments.

Insects that migrate from one country to another, such as monarch butterflies and certain species of birds, do not know countries and do not know borders because that does not exist in nature. The countries on this continent and the borders on the continent are only inventions to divide and confront that are inspired by the nefarious Roman motto of divide and conquer.

Therefore, all countries on the continent should be governed only by indigenous people who are genetically pure (who retain East Asian traits) and who are not traitors to their race, and all countries on the continent should unite to form a single country with a single flag, to eliminate all borders on the continent and for the entire continent to be united.

On this continent: the majority of European immigrants, the majority of Creoles, the majority of mestizos, the majority of blacks and the majority of mulattoes are bad because they are indifferent to what the indigenous people suffer; They consider that if the indigenous people defend themselves or take revenge, the indigenous people are terrorists, bad or savages; They despise the indigenous people, and have always voted for politicians who harm the indigenous people, which is why they should be expelled from the continent and sent to Europe and Africa.

They should only remain on the continent: the small percentage of European immigrants, the small percentage of Creoles, the small percentage of mestizos, the small percentage of blacks and the small percentage of mulattoes who do care about the life of the indigenous people, who do care help the indigenous people and those who do feel appreciation for the indigenous people.

And they should remain on the continent: people who, although not indigenous, are dedicated to environmental conservation projects such as Ecotourism, Organic Agriculture, Permaculture, Gardening, botanical gardens, landscaping, hiking, natural medicine, recycling projects, Beekeeping, Zoo Breeding of butterflies and butterfly farms, reforestation projects, and projects that help respect and conserve indigenous ethnic groups, and those who collaborate financially with all these projects.

Many times when indigenous people who live on the edges of the streets, hungry and suffering from needs like the Guaraní, try to recover their territories, they are called invaders by the criminals who hate them, by the damned politicians, by the damned television and by the damned majority.

The indigenous people were on the continent before all of us, so the invaders are the majority of those who are not indigenous (European immigrants, creoles, mestizos, blacks and mulattoes).

The Guarani-Kaiowa and other ethnic groups are often on the streets, suffering from hunger and need, while agribusiness criminals are millionaires. Furthermore, the breeding of bulls and cows is what pollutes and destroys the environment the most, and landowners use these territories to raise bulls and cows.

In Brazil, the indigenous people of the Guaraní Kaiowa ethnic group continue to be murdered by landowners, what I say: the majority are bad, the majority vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people throughout the continent, the majority are indifferent to the lives of the indigenous people.

And in Brazil, Argentina, Mexico, Chile, the United States and Canada there is more hatred against the indigenous people, but the majority of the indigenous people have beliefs and things brought by the Europeans and the majority of people who do not care about their lives.

However, that the majority of indigenous people today have their minds colonized with Judeo-Christian beliefs brought by European colonizers, and are not aware of the damage that bull and cow farming causes to the environment and to themselves: it is not the fault of The indigenous people have their minds colonized, it is the fault of the damn majority who are not indigenous and who parasitize their minds.
