

WRITTEN TO DISSEMINATE BY ALL MEDIA

In 2024, the military police (PM) of Brazil continue to murder indigenous people of the Guaraní-Kaiowa ethnic group:

If Lula cared about the indigenous people, he would not allow the police to do this to them, he would not brainwash them with pacifism and equality, and he would give them weapons to defend themselves.

Therefore, damn the majority, damn the television and damn the politicians when they treat indigenous people who defend themselves or take revenge as savages, criminals or terrorists.

The majority does not comply with those Judeo-Christian teachings of Jesus Christ to forgive everything, turn the other cheek and love your enemies, because deep down the majority knows that these teachings are an offense to dignity, and the majority defends themselves, if the majority is attacked, the majority also attack to defend themselves.

But the majority wants the indigenous people to love their enemies, be pacifist, forgive everything, turn the other cheek and not defend themselves because that is part of the instinctive hatred they feel towards the indigenous people, that is why they want the indigenous people to be masochists who allow they do everything to them.

If indigenous people demand that their rights be fulfilled, the damn majority says they want privileges.

When the majority never suffered expulsion from their territories, the majority never suffered replacement, the majority never suffered State oppression, the majority never suffered the hatred of the police, the majority never suffered the hatred of the military, the majority never suffered the burning of their houses, the majority never suffered famine, the majority never suffered water poisoning, the majority never suffered the hatred of politicians, the majority never suffered a reduction in their population and the majority never suffered massacres.

So the damn majority are the privileged ones who always vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people and the majority are indifferent to the lives of the indigenous people.

And the majority of the indigenous people, in addition to having their minds colonized by the Judeo-Christian beliefs brought by the European colonizers, by pacifism, by equality, and by not knowing that the farming of bulls, cows, sheep and goats is a product of colonization, they also suffer brainwashing, believing that only white people harm them.

It is not about whites against indigenous people. It is about a majority that is not indigenous (which includes Europeans, Creoles, mestizos, whites, browns, blacks, zambos and mulattoes) against the indigenous people and against the environment because they are selfish, individualistic, noisy, consumerist and only care about the money.

It is as I explain in my writings that the farming of bulls, cows, sheep and goats is what pollutes and destroys the environment the most.

However, the majority will continue eating the meat of these animals brought by the European settlers, drinking milk and will continue consuming dairy products, because for the majority their tastes and interests are above life and above the environment.

And it's not that the majority have to be vegan or vegetarian, they can eliminate the consumption of meat from these animals brought by the European settlers, eliminate the consumption of milk and eliminate the consumption of dairy products, and eat other meats such as fish, but the majority is a fool.

In fact, most of the soy cultivation that also destroys the Amazon and invades indigenous territories: most of this soy is used to make fattening concentrates for cows, bulls, sheep and goats.

Left and right are part of the same plan, therefore, the blue Masonic apron and the red Masonic apron, and the Masonic chess floor with the colors black and white.

On the one hand, the Right and the Neoliberals promote hatred of indigenous people and hate speech against indigenous people, and on the other hand, the Left only gives crumbs to the indigenous people, brainwashes them with pacifism so that they do not defend themselves and brainwashes them with multiculturalism so that the indigenous people do not take back the continent and are not the only ones who govern the entire continent.

If I care for butterflies and caterpillars, I have to kill their predators, such as spiders, wasps and ants, to protect the butterflies and caterpillars. And if I take care of the bees, I also have to kill their predators like spiders, wasps and ants to protect the bees.

If I care for a child and a serial killer or rapist is going to harm that child, and to protect the child my only option is to eliminate the serial killer or rapist, it is right that I eliminate the serial killer or rapist to protect the child.

But, a pacifist, instead of defending the weakest, the most vulnerable and the most innocent, which is the child, what a pacifist like a New Age hippie would do is defend the rapist and the serial killer, stating that he only needs love and light to change and preventing him from receiving what he deserves and causing him to go unpunished.

Since I was a child, I would collect and care for the following butterfly caterpillars, and then set them free when they turned into butterflies, this is my favorite caterpillar:

But one time when I was a child, some ants entered the place where I had these caterpillars, and the ants ate the caterpillars and the pupae, the ants eat the caterpillars by biting them. I enjoyed spraying poison on the ants and watching them die.

The majority defends those who harm the most vulnerable, defends those who harm the weakest, and defends those who harm the most innocent. And this same majority harms the weakest, harms the most vulnerable and harms the most innocent, and that is what the majority has always done with the indigenous people.

The truth should be that it doesn't matter that most mestizos have indigenous ancestors or say they have had an indigenous ancestor like a grandfather or great-grandfather, because the majority of mestizos are in their way of being, in their way of thinking, in their tastes and in their vision of the world like the Europeans, they also despise the indigenous people, they are also indifferent to what the indigenous people suffer and they also vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people.

Most men and most women are cowards because they believe that harming the weak is strength, they believe that harming the vulnerable is power, and they believe that harming the innocent is bravery.

Pleasure hunting, bullfighting and cockfighting were brought to this continent by European colonizers.

Since before Christianity: Europeans such as the Celts, Slavs, Vikings, Greeks and Romans practiced hunting for pleasure without it being a necessity to survive, which is why they believe that harming the most vulnerable, the weakest and the most Innocents is power, strength or bravery depending on your stupidity.

In Brazil; Politicians, military, police, landowners and invaders of indigenous territories continue to do this to the indigenous people:

Many times when indigenous people who live on the edges of the streets, hungry and suffering from needs like the Guaraní, try to recover their territories, they are called invaders by the criminals who hate them, by the damned politicians, by the damned television and by the damned majority of people stupid.

The indigenous people were on the continent before all of us, so the invaders are the majority of those who are not indigenous (European immigrants, creoles, mestizos, blacks, zambos and mulattoes).

The Guaraní-Kaoiwa and other ethnic groups are often on the streets, suffering from hunger and need, while agribusiness criminals are millionaires. Furthermore, the breeding of bulls and cows is what pollutes and destroys the environment the most, and landowners use these territories to raise bulls and cows.

And this happens in Brazil, but it is the same thing that happens in all the countries of the continent, the same thing happens in: Canada, United States, Mexico, Guatemala, Belize, El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Colombia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Peru, Chile, Argentina, Bolivia and Paraguay.

In all countries of the continent to which the colonizers gave the name America: the non-indigenous majority have always voted for Right-wing, Neoliberal or Left-wing politicians who harm the indigenous people directly or who allow the indigenous people to be harmed.

In all countries of the continent to which the colonizers gave the name America: the majority that is not indigenous has always been indifferent to what the indigenous people suffer, they have always rejected, hated and despised the indigenous people.

In all countries of the continent to which the colonizers gave the name America: the majority watch movies, series and cartoons that promote hatred of indigenous people. Because, even if a movie, series and cartoon where indigenous people appear claims to represent them in a good way: they are all made to promote hatred of indigenous people in one way or another.

Many Argentines who hate indigenous people say that the Mapuches are invaders and that they exterminated other indigenous ethnic groups, but in reality these Argentines who say this are those who descend from Spanish and Italian invaders who exterminated most of the members of different indigenous ethnic groups like the Qom and others in the so-called conquest of the desert, and in the genocide of the Selknam ethnic group.

The concept of countries is something colonial and did not exist on the continent before colonization. Before colonization: the Mapuche lived in what is now called Argentina and Chile.

Before colonization: The Yanomami lived in what is now Brazil and Venezuela. Before colonization: The Guaraní lived in what is now Brazil, Paraguay, Argentina and Bolivia.

Before colonization: The Ngobes lived in what is now Costa Rica and Panama. Before colonization: The Mayans lived in what is now Mexico, Guatemala, Belize, Honduras, and El Salvador.

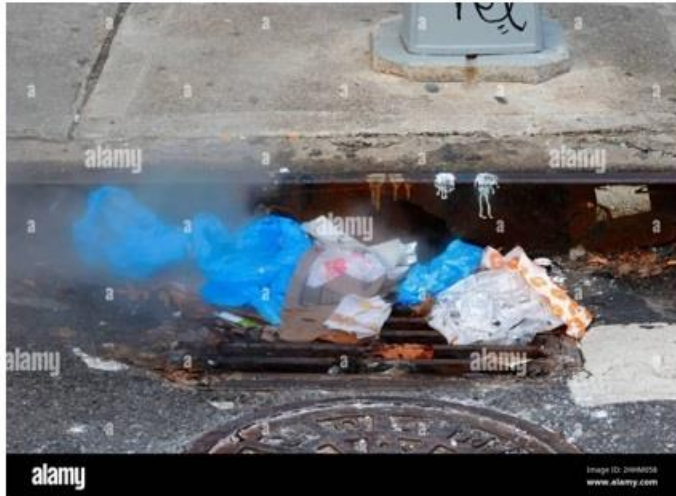

I am white and mixed race, but I accept that most white people are bad and I accept that most mixed race people are bad.

All those who harm indigenous people, such as politicians, elites in power, police, military and the majority of non-indigenous people, should be sentenced to death.

Television, politicians, the elites in power and the majority call this shit civilization, development and progress:

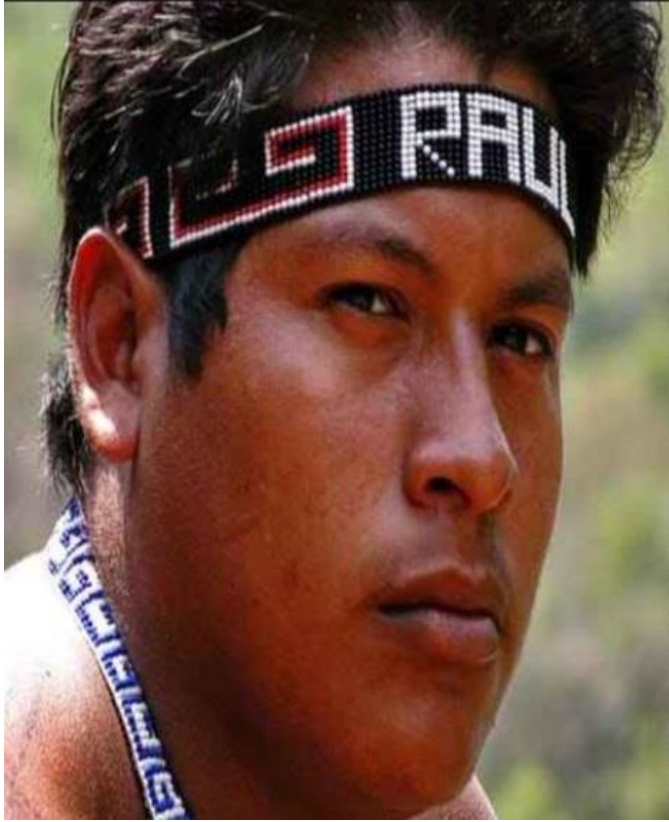

The majority that is not indigenous will never change, they are leading the world to destruction and there is no way to eliminate the majority of those who are not indigenous, and on the other hand, the majority of indigenous people have their minds colonized and there are ethnic groups that already are very mixed with other races, but they believe themselves to be indigenous.

Genetically pure indigenous people are those who retain East Asian features, and many genetically pure indigenous people are of great physical beauty due to their East Asian features:
